Information Furnished Pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 6045B
Relating to Actions Affecting the Basis of Securities

Issuer's Name: VanEck Vectors J.P. Morgan EM Local Currency Bond ETF (the "Fund")
EIN: 27-2201401
Ticker EMLC
CUSIP: Original CUSIP 92189F494; CUSIP Post-Split 92189H300
Classification: Common Stock

Effective as of the market open on October 26, 2018, the Fund completed a 1-for-2 reverse stock split for its outstanding shares of common stock. The CUSIP number changed from 92189F494 to 92189H300. Pursuant to the reverse stock split, every 2 shares of issued and outstanding common stock automatically converted into 1 share of common stock. No fractional shares were issued. A shareholder who would have otherwise been entitled to a fractional share as a result of the reverse stock split received cash in lieu thereof and was deemed for federal income tax purposes to have received and then immediately sold such fractional share for cash.

The 1-for-2 reverse stock split was a non-taxable transaction for U.S. Federal income tax purposes pursuant to IRC Sections 368(A)(1)(E) and 354(a)(1). Except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares, a shareholder will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. Federal income tax purposes as a result of the reverse stock split.

Pursuant to Section 358 of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"), shareholders must allocate the aggregate tax basis in their shares held immediately prior to the reverse stock split among the shares held immediately after the reverse stock split (including fractional shares for which cash in lieu was received). In general, a shareholder's aggregate tax basis in shares of the Fund held immediately prior to the reverse split should be allocated in proportion to the reduced number of shares. Shareholders that have acquired different blocks of common stock at different times or at different prices are urged to consult their tax advisor regarding the allocation of their aggregated adjusted basis among, and the holding period of, that common stock.

In general, if a shareholder received cash in lieu of fractional shares, the shareholder will recognize gain or loss based on the difference between the amount of cash received and the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in the fractional shares.
